W. C. T. U. CONVENTION.

Mrs. C. H. Phillips, Honorary President of Tennessee Woman's Christian Temperance Union, addressed the Davidson County W. C. T. U. Convention, Wednesday the 16th at the First Presbyterian Church. She was introduced by the President of the Convention, who styled her as the pioneer worker of W. C. T. U. work in this State, having founded the work here twenty-three years ago, and represented the state in the National W. C. T. U. Convention here in 1887. She was appointed by the convention to work up interest in this city for the coming of the National Woman's Christian Temperance Union to be held here November 8th, 1907.

PALMYRA NOTES.

Mrs. R. L. Outlaw entertained the T. U. Club at her residence on the 22nd. Games were played until 11 p. m., after which they were served in two courses. Those present were Misses B. H. Moody, V. L. Moody, Alice Eldridge and M. L. Allen, Messrs. T. B. Green, Jas. Oliphant, Joseph Allen, T. J. Moody, H. L. Moody and W. C. Wilkins.

We are very sorry indeed to learn that the Doctor states that Mr. Ed. Marable cannot get well. Yet we hope he will stay with us quite awhile.

MRS. STIGGER IMPROVING.

Mrs. Webb Stigger will be able to leave Mercy Hospital about the end of the incoming week. It will be remembered that Mrs. Stigger underwent a very difficult operation, which was performed by Drs. J. T. Wilson and A. M. Townsend. The work was of the major class, being not only extremely difficult but of the emergency nature. It was the first operation ever performed in Mercy Hospital at night and both physicians demonstrated excellent skill in the case. The operation was witnessed by the senior medical class of Meharry. Mr. Stigger is well pleased with the speedy recovery of his wife.

DELIGHTFULLY ENTERTAINED.

The beautiful residence of Mrs. Horace M. Burns on Tenth avenue was recently well filled with friends who had accepted an invitation to luncheon in honor of Mrs. Cannon C. Winstead. The parlors were beautifully decorated with ferns and evergreens, while growing plants and cut flowers made the dining room a thing of beauty. The hostess was assisted in receiving by Mrs. Winstead and Mrs. Hattie Pullen. Mrs. F. A. Turner presided over the frappe bowl. The following five-course menu was served:

Cream Soup.
Crackers.
Shrimp Salad on Lettuce.
Baked Fish.
Green Peas.
Pickles.
Beaten Biscuit.
Pink and White Devil Food.
Ice Cream.
Cake.
Java Coffee.

AN OLD LANDMARK REMOVED.

Residents of North Nashville in the vicinity of Jefferson street will miss an old familiar landmark in the destruction of the little Bethlehem Baptist Church, which has stood for nearly a quarter of a century at the corner of Warren and Haslam streets. This church was torn down last week to make way for a new church.

PHIL H. BROWN ILL.

Mr. Phil H. Brown, editor and publisher of the Hopkinsville Morning News, the only daily newspaper in the United States issued by colored people, was seriously ill the first of the week. Mr. J. W. DeWees, one of our well-known citizens, was at the bedside of Mr. Brown last week and pronounces the case as serious. He thinks that with care Mr. Brown will be able to resume his duties in a week or more.

GOOCH-HALL NUPTIALS.

A quiet, but pretty wedding was that of Miss Effie Hall and Mr. Leslie Gooch on January 30, 1907. The ceremony was impressively performed by the Rev. Mr. Ferrill. The bride was becomingly gowned in a cream net over silk. In her hair she wore bride's roses. Ices, cake and fruit were served. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. James Gray, Mr. and Mrs. James Phillips, Mr. and Mrs. S. T. Shelby, Mrs. A. Cunningham, Mrs. L. Walker and Messrs. Taylor and Dobson.

EIGHT O'CLOCK TEA.

An enjoyable eight o'clock tea was given last Friday evening by the Misses Berry at the home of their mother, Mrs. L. P. Corrington, on Jefferson street. The house was beautifully lighted, and from the handsomely decorated table a most dainty menu was served. Those present were Misses Mollie, Elnora and Esther Berry, Messrs. D. W. Crutcher, Roy Tibbs, Wm. Boger, Geo. White, Wm. Davis and A. T. Landers.
